

Swiss-American Chamber of Commerce
California – San Francisco Chapter

We invite you to join us for the
JEU DE PISTE SUISSE
Saturday, June 11, 2005

The SWISS-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE cordially invites you to our first ever “Scavenger Hunt/Schnitzel Jagt”.

Under the theme “The Swiss discover the Swiss Bay Area”, we will acquaint you with Businesses, organizations and artists of Swiss ownership or origin. We will offer you a day filled with fun and excitement while driving around a beautiful part of the Golden State.

Participants will travel by car. Each car will represent a team. You can either enter alone and we will match you up, or you can sign up with someone of your choice (please specify on the application).

Courtesy of the Consul General of Switzerland, Mr. Roland Quillet, registration and commencement of this event will occur at his residence at Sea Cliff in San Francisco. He generously offers croissants and coffee at the point of departure.

Participants will be provided with clues on how to get from one stop to the next. At each stop participants will earn points for certain activities.

Enjoy a BBQ-lunch at the midpoint. At the end of the rally an informal dinner will be served and awards will be given out in various categories of achievement.

Date: Saturday, June 11, 2005
